

SALADIN

PROJECT :3.1

I propose that you and I have been living within a play of each others invention, for the past five years. The play's illusion will only be broken on encountering each other in the street, as only in that moment will we realise we posses the others script.

signed

Alexander Storey Gordon

email your details and availability to:

alexanderstoreygordon@gmail.com